

Elmore Green Primary School Curriculum Long Term Plan

	Autumn		Spring	Summer
Year 1	Magical Me	Shining Starlight	Brrrh! and Phew!	Blooming Marvellous
	A study of the human body, our senses and the families we live in.	A study of the festivals of light, including Bonfire Night, Diwali, Hanukkah and Advent. We focus on the famous historical figures of Guy Fawkes, Van Gogh, Louis Braille and Helen Keller	A geography focus of all things Hot - Deserts and Cold - The Poles, investigating weather and climate changes, contrasting environments and animal habitats including Polar explorers	Investigating how our and where our food grows. Looking at contrasting environments and how this impacts on how plants grow
Year 2	Making A Difference		In The Toy Box	Inferno
	This unit focuses on how the work of important figures throughout history has changed our lives today for the better - Florence Nightingale, Edith Cavell, Rosa Parks		A theme based on looking at the history of toys and how Paddington Bear travels on his many adventures around the world	A study into the significant event of the Great Fire of London, how it all began and how we know about it thanks to the diaries of Samuel Pepys
	Remembrance
	The significance of remembrance and how events in history have effected Elmore Green
Year 3	All Creatures Great and Small		Dinosaur Detectives	Catapults and Crossbows
	Investigating the animals of the world, looking at their skeletons, muscles and their needs for life. Studying how humans need nutrition to live and how we use animals to sustain us.		This units focuses on the prehistoric world and provides opportunities to carry out tests to think about whether dinosaurs were cold-blooded, investigate dinosaurs structures, research why they became extinct and find out more about different types of dinosaur	A unit of British history focusing on events medieval times and events after 1066. A study of knights, castles and jousting.
Year 4	Temples, Tombs & Treasures		Maharajahs, Madras & Mumbai	Conquered - Under Attack
	An ancient civilization study of Egypt. Children will explore the life and times 4000BC - 300AD		India - A contrasting locality study looking at the human and physical geography and the differences in each compared to the UK	An in-depth history study about the life and time of the Romans, Anglo-Saxons and Vikings, and how the things they implemented now still effect modern life.
Year 5	Pioneers		It's All Greek To Me !	Our Powerful Planet
	An investigation into the true pioneers of history. From the explorers of Columbus and Livingston, to the Victorian inventors of Edison and Brunel, this unit delves into the people who made our world the one we live in today. We even blast-off into space to study the beginnings of space exploration		An ancient civilization study looking at the differing city states of Ancient Greece and the impact of their ideas on today's society	A theme that focuses on the physical power of the earth including rivers, mountains, floods, droughts, earthquakes and volcanoes.
Year 6	Britain At War		Chocolate	Shipwrecked	Life on Stage
	An in-depth history study about how Britain has been involved in war with counties in the world and how war's impact has shaped our country		Geography meets history in a study of chocolate. Children will be investigating where cocoa plants grow, what chocolate has been used for through history and how it goes from plant to product. Inc. Aztec and Amazon)	Shipwrecks of the past form the basis of this unit; the ill-fated maiden voyage of HMS Titanic, the escapades of Robinson Crusoe and the classic text of Treasure Island.	An historical study of the life and work of William Shakespeare and how the theatre has changed and developed throughout history.
	Remembrance
	The significance of remembrance and how events in history have effected Elmore Green				